How to get to Text Matters from the South or West

- Take the M4 to Junction 11
- Take the B3350 past the Foster Wheeler building
- Turn left on to Shinfield Road, past the ECMTWF
- Go straight through next two roundabouts, and down past the University (Whiteknights campus)
- Turn right, and then take the immediate first left on to Redlands Road (leading to Royal Berkshire Hospital)
- Take the third right into Upper Redlands Road
- Text Matters is on the corner of the first right turn off Upper Redlands Road. Look for the big house with the five-bar gate. You can park on the road or come into the drive.

How to get to Text Matters from the North or East

This map has been simplified and is not drawn to scale

- Come into Reading from M4 junction 10 along the A329(M).
 - Take the A4 exit.
 - At the bottom of the slip road take the first exit off the roundabout. This is London Road (A4)
- Head into Reading on London Road. Keep in the left-hand lane.
 - After three minor sets of traffic lights you will come to a major junction.
 - The road ahead splits either side of the Upin Arms pub. You want the left-hand fork.
- Carry on along London Road – in the left-hand lane – until you reach the Royal Berkshire Hospital on your left and a Murco filling station on your right.
- Turn left into Redlands Road. This takes you past the side of the Hospital.
- Carry on up the hill and take the second left into Upper Redlands Road.
- Text Matters is on the corner of the first right turn off Upper Redlands Road. Look for the big house with a five-bar gate. You can park on the road or come into the drive.
